Cincinnati Times Star

13

Numismatic Group Will Convene Here

The Cincinnati Numismatic Association will be host to the convention of the American Numismatic Association that opens in the Netherland Plaza Saturday and will continue till next Thursday.

The convention delegates will be greeted Monday morning by Mayor James G. Stewart and Ed S. Horwitz, acting president of the local association. A large exhibition of coins will be held in connection with the convention and there will be daily addresses on questions pertaining to numismatics.

[redacted]

Aug 20-24 1942